The upcoming cuts are expected to provide support to the economy and the equity market. The economic situation of consumers in the Nordics is projected to improve during the year due to higher real incomes, declining inflation and lower interest rates. Company profit outlooks also appear more positive and the future looks promising. With optimism about a soft landing for the global economy and the peak in interest rates now behind us, the equity market has shown a strong rebound since the low point in October.

During the quarter the fund increased investments in companies such as Sweco, Cargotec and NCC. Companies that contributed to fund returns included Zealand Pharma, Norwegian and Harvia, while the holdings in Nordic Semiconductor, Kempower and Sinch had a negative impact on returns.
