Portfolio manager comments — Q2 2024

The fund continued to rise during Q2 and performance was positive. Swedish market rates fell, which led Swedish bonds to outperform fixed income securities with shorter duration. During the same period, market rates rose in both the US and Europe. Corporate credits exceeded the market's performance as a whole, while emerging market bonds lagged. A stronger SEK had a negative impact on foreign holdings. Focus remained on inflation data and the measures taken by the central banks. The Swedish Riksbank and the European Central Bank cut rates, although expectations for a cut by the US central bank have been postponed. The upcoming elections in France, UK and US have periodically affected the financial markets.. During the period we made investments in the Jyske Bank High Yield Fund, which we believe offers attractive returns. The portfolio has a neutral duration in the holdings and continues to hold an overweight in corporate credits and emerging market bonds.
